

HW
14/8/2021

Home Assignment

How the speaker faced hurdles for helping the new girl?

When the new girl first came to school, the speaker was given the responsibility to show her around, be her mentor. The new girl was strange. One of her hands was fake, she has a prosthetic hand. Due to this other students in the class stare at her in curiosity. The new girl never talks to anyone and always stand at a corner. As the other students didn't get an answer from the new girl, they keep bothering the speaker with questions about her. One day one of speaker's classmates and his friends, cornered speaker and ask her about the new girl. Then they took her bag and threw it into the thicket. The speaker needs to climb quickly with difficulty to get it. She even tore her shirt due to this. Her mother was angry on her.