

HW
16/8/2021

Home Assignment

"The problems faced by the new girl in school."

The new girl at the school was a bit strange. She has a prosthetic hand which made it different. Due to this she has many insecurities and she felt inferior from others. She always stand at a corner and watch people playing. She is usually gloomy and is not at all active in society circles. She always need to do her things in one hand like binding shoelace. The speaker find it very annoying, the way the new girl is acting. Because, of her the speaker needs to face many problems. That's why in her letters she advised her to be more social. Then gradually she learnt a lot more about the new girl and become her friend.