Character sketch of the

Boy

Page _____

The boy's name was Roger. He was fourteen or fifteen year teenager. He was frail, his face look dirty and his appearance was not presentable. He was wearing tennis shoes and blue jeans. There was no one at his home to take care of him, he was probably an orphan, who is in need of money. Because of this, he attempted to snatch the purse of a lady. He needed that money to buy a pair of blue suede shoes. But his attempt to steal a purse has failed, as he was caught by the big bulky lady. That teaches him a lesson for stealing despite the fact that she even gave him ten dollars to buy blue suede shoes. She even gave him food to eat and let him wash his face at her home. After that incident, the boy had never seen her again.
