A) 1) When is it tough to obey rigid orders?

Ans- It is very tough to obey rigid orders when those orders commanded you to quit the things that you like to do. You don't want to quit that but you have to quit it.

2) Why should one not boast about their courage to others?

Ans- We should not boast about our courage to others unless we have really tried it out. Cause boastfulness always causes crisis and as it is said "pride goes before fall".

3) When it is easy to "retain a gain"?

Ans- It is very easy to paste a gain on our faces when we are in between of a easy battle. But in the fiercest fights it is very challenging to put up a brave face and continue fighting.

4) What is the best way to test if you have grit?

Ans- The best way to test our grit or courage is to first choose whatever gives us joy and then quit that thing.

5) What is the 'toughest' kind of game?

Ans- The toughest kind of game is to obey whatever our mind says. We always listen to our heart because it says what we like. But mind never says that, that's why it's quite challenging to obey our mind.
