Dear diary,

It was a wonderful Experience to visit Darjeeling and that too in this summer.

Hill stations are the best places to visit for enjoying summer. The journey began on 10th of this month and we went through train. During the three houred journey, we observed many beautiful landscapes full of trees, flowers and animals. during that time, I also wrote a poem. We stayed in a hotel and on the first day we went for the very famous tea gardens, full of greenery and beauty. It was one of the most beautiful place, I have ever visited. Being a hilly area, the mountains were covered with fog and those distinct white patches on a black mountain was really damn beautiful. Darjeeling is not only a place for Natural beauty, Its culture and traditions are also very attractive and colourfull. Being a bordering area between Northern countries, It has an influence of buddhist culture as well as Hindu culture. That's the most beautiful fact I am a nature lover, thus, at any moment of life I would feel pleased to visit such milestones of Natural Beauty. Darjeeling would always reside in my heart.
