Page _____

My favourite person is my father. He is my best friend, and I share everything with him. He is a gentle person and always ready to help others whenever they face problem.

He is God loving person & always teaches me prayers & mantras. He is a very busy person as he runs his own business but still he takes us out on Sundays and helps me in my studies. He is the protector of our family and always takes care of me. He also a good cook and make very delicious food. I am proud to have my father as my hero.
