

Homework

Page: - 1450

- ① xylem consists of tracheids, vessels, parenchyma & fibers.
- ② In charge of transport & distribution of the organic nutrients.
- ③ xylem & phloem tissues are known as complex permanent tissues because they're made up of more than one type of cells & all these different types of cells co-ordinate to perform the same functions.
- ④ xylem is the complex tissue of plants, responsible for transporting water & other nutrients to the plants.
Phloem is living tissue, responsible for transporting food & other organic materials.