

Homework

- ① Every citizen has been given a right to vote; i.e., to choose their representative, without discrimination & their vote being considered equal.
- ∞ It offers the citizens & parties to contest elections freely & fairly.
 - ∞ It also provides the citizens a variety of choices to choose their representatives.
 - ∞ It presents the citizens with a choice to choose their leaders at regular intervals.