

No men are foreign

① The poet speaks about the various dresses that people of various countries wear but beneath them, the human body is same.

② The poet says that nobody is different & peculiar. No country is foreign. A single body breathes beneath all uniforms. Moreover, the land is the same everywhere.

③ In the first stanza, the poet says that there is ~~no~~ <sup>one</sup> difference between the body of a citizen of ~~another~~ <sup>one</sup> country & the citizen of another country. We have same kind of body, we wear same kind of clothes. We walk on the same planet, & the end of each individual is the same.

④ The following common features are given in the stanzas:

① Sun.

② Air.

③ Water.

④ Peaceful harvests reqd. for human survival.

⑤ Same hands

Sometimes, some selfish people instigate the innocent to harm others. They do it for their own benefit. The common or ordinary man doesn't understand their tricks & starts hating his fellow human beings. They tell them to cause riots. The poet says that one should not follow anybody's advice without brooding over it. The poet repeatedly says that there is no difference in them & the foreigners. The people of the entire world are the same.
