

Homework

- ① Germany emerged from the first world war defeated & in political & economic turmoil. The economy was ruined & the Kaiser had fled. The country's various political parties, democratic & extremist fought for power.
- ② Those who supported the Weimar Republic were called 'November Criminals'. Socialists, Catholics, & Democrats were supporters of the Weimar Republic so, they were called November Criminals.

③

Between the world wars, November 11 was commemorated as Armistice Day in the United States, Great Britain, & France.