Dear Sreyas,

I hope this letter finds you in the best of health and spirits. As the autumn vacation is going to start soon, I wish that I could tell you what I am planning to execute during this autumn vacation.

This autumn vacation I am planning to visit Mumbai. There are many historical places in Mumbai. We can see the Gateway of India, Hotel Taj, Marine Drive, Museum and hanging garden there. We will visit planetarium and aquarium also. We will have lots of fun on Juhu Beach and enjoy tasty food there. People come from various places to visit these historical places.

I hope you spend a few days with us in Mumbai. Pay my regards to Uncle and Aunt.

Your friend,
Anuradha.

(1) Ju is a young girl who lives with her mother. Her father was killed in a tragic accident a few years ago. Her mother is a domestic help and so many of the things that Ju uses - textbooks, school bag, lunch box and umbrella are second-hand.

(2) Hamid was only four and he didn't have new clothes or shoes like other children. He had only three paise for the festival to spend in a fair. His friends spend their pocket money on rides, candies and buying beautiful, colourful clay toys. While his friends are enjoying themselves, he overcomes his desire and buys a pair of tongs. He remembers how his grandmother burns her hand while cooking chapattis. This is how Hamid shows maturity.

③ When Blake, Johnson, Jones, the gardener, the cook, the housemaid and Ethel all helped lift it and finally raised into the van, the voice of William was heard from the back of the piano and sideboard and hatstand.
