

Ch-2 Reproduction In Plants

Short Answer Question :

① Write two ways in which pollination may occur in plants.

Ans a) Self-pollination

b) Cross-pollination

2. Name the three agents of pollination.

Ans a. Water

b. Insect

c. Wind

3. Write two features of flowers which favour pollination by insects

Ans a) These flowers are large with coloured petals to attract insects.

b) These are scented so that insects locate the flowers by the smell.

44) Name two characteristics of flower in which pollination occurs by wind.

Ans a) They are usually small & are of dull colours.
b) They generally have long anthers protruding out of the flowers so that pollen may get blown off easily.