

Revision 1

The passive voice

14 "By the time their screaming stopped and the two plaits were disentangled it was almost time for the next period."

(a) Whose plaits were tied up?

Ans → Gria & Pia's plaits were tied up.

(b) Why were they screaming?

Ans → They were screaming because Gria's plaits were tied to that of Pia.

(c) When did the incident occur?

Ans → The incident occurred during English grammar period.

24 We are revising the lesson because we had learned it many years ago. It was terribly boring and much worse, sitting next to me on the bench was Gria, who is even bossier than my sister, if that is possible."

(a) Who are referred as 'we'?

Ans → We are referred as the students of the class.

(b) Which lesson was being taught?

Ans → The "Passive voice" lesson was being taught.

(c) Why is Gria called bossy?

Ans → Gria always dominates narrator. When the teacher asked a question in the class, she would respond over-enthusiastically without giving anyone a chance to answer. Whenever she stood up, her thick plaits irritated the narrator. This is why Gria is called bossy.
