The Song of the Whale

Answer these questions:

1. Why is the whale crying?

Ans- The whale is crying for all its family members that have been killed by humans. We are slaughtering various species for our own benefit. Instead of the whale's live, we are choosing lipsticks & polishes & other products that are made of whales.

2. Which lines in the poem tell you what whales were used for?

Ans - The lines, "Lipstick for our painted faces, polish for our shoes" tell us that the whales are used for.

3. Beards - high notes, keening / Sorrowing
a. What are these lines describing?

Ans - The lines are describing the pain & helplessness of the whales that are weeping about their plight, the exploitation by humans & fear of extinction. The use of sound conveys a sense of sadness in a whale, which encourages us to also feel for the whale.

b. Why does the speaker describe it as 'keening'?

Ans - The word 'keening' creates an impression of pain or loss as high-pitched sounds are often associated with pain & grief. The whales are missing their friends & relatives as we humans keep on killing them for our greed. Thus, they sing the keening songs.

4. What are 'painted faces'? How does the speaker feel about them?

Ans - 'Painted faces' are faces made up with cosmetics. The poet dislikes them as he is aware that we are killing whales to obtain these beauty products, which is a sheer waste of life.

5. How would we make the whale's 'deaf'?

Ans The word 'deaf' suggests something is sick & unable to speak. In this case the whale has died or is dying & so ~~is~~ ^{is} no longer able to sing. This line means that man would kill all the whales, making them extinct.

6. Why does the speaker say that we are not choosing 'life'?

Ans - The whales are being killed for our needs & goods & instead of the lives of the whales we are choosing make-up, polish & other beauty products they provide, instead of letting the whales live, we are choosing luxury items for ourselves.

(B) 1) Why is the poem titled 'The song of the whale'?

Ans Whales make high-pitched sound whistling kind of sound to communicate with each other. This appears like a song to human ears. Here, the poet has used the title 'The song of the whale' to emphasize the desperate cry of pain or cry for help from whales against human exploiters.

The poet is trying to say that this sorrow is what you will hear in the song of whale.

2. Who is the speaker addressing in the poem, why does he do that?

Ans - The speaker is addressing a whale in the poem. Speaking to the whale directly, the speaker is telling us that he understands its song & its pain. By making the whale a 'person' that we can address & talk to, the speaker makes the whale more real in our eyes. It makes the reader aware that we are responsible for causing a living, breathing, talking, singing creature in pain. The speaker is attempting to make us feel the sorrow of a fellow creature in the world.

3. ~~What does the speaker wish to see?~~
4. Does the speaker think there is hope yet for the whale? How do you know? ~~from the poem~~

Ans - The poet sees very less hope for the whales as he feels they are on the edge of extinction & the humans still do not see the emptiness & cruelty of their actions. The line we will never let you be projects the hopelessness that the speaker feels.
