Get Going

- A 2. Tom had ~~been~~ been asked to whitewash 30 yards of board/fence on Saturday morning.
3. Aunt Polly was very angry and charged towards Jim and Tom with a slipper in her hand.
4. Tom ~~also~~ almost lost hope and gave up the idea of buying the boys before he had the inspiration.
5. Tom was dreading being seen whitewashing by his friends as they would jeer at him for being stuck with such a boring task while they were roaming freely.
6. Tom made it a point to go about whitewashing the fence with a lot of enthusiasm and fondness that Ben became interested in it. He further repeated that Aunt Polly had trusted him with the job as it was an important task. This was how Tom convinced

Ben that whitewashing was important and interesting work.

B.1. This means that Tom's friend came to make fun of him seeing him busy whitewashing but they themselves were whitewashing the fence.

2. Tom is a naughty, but witty boy. He lives with his Aunt Polly. He loves to play and have fun. In the story Tom manages to lure his friends into doing the work that was assigned to him. This proves that he is also extremely shrewd. Not only does he convince them that whitewashing the fence is a pleasurable task but also collects many small rewards in exchange for letting them do the task.

C.1. Although Tom tricked his friends into doing the chore that was assigned to him. This proves that he doesn't use force while doing so. As he doesn't cause any harm to anyone in the process and merely used his intellect to get out of doing the work, what he did can be justified. I too would have fallen for his trick because Tom is very manipulative and gives undeniable offers.

2. ~~I +~~ If I were Ben Rogers, I would be very angry. I would try to get back at Tom and make a fool out of him in some other way.
