

2. Magnetic Substances: The substances that get attracted by a magnet are called magnetic substances. Ex - Iron, steel, cobalt and nickel.

Non-magnetic Substances: The substances that do not get attracted by a magnet are called non-magnetic substances. Ex - wood, plastic, copper, paper, aluminium, rubber, stone.

3. Natural magnets: Natural magnets are those which are found in nature. ^{Leadstone} is naturally occurring magnets whereas magnetite is a magnetic mineral. They are weak.