

HW
12/5/2021

1. A monitor displays output on the screen.

2. An operating system is an example of software.

3. Application software are written for specific purpose.

4. System software and hardware work together in a computer system.

5. CPU is the brain of the computer.

2. a) A mouse is an output device. F

b) You can see, feel and touch the software. F

c) An operating system starts automatically when the computer is turned off.

d) Note Pad is an example of application software.

3) Input, Process and output are hardware.

3. a. Devices used to store data for future reference are called:

- a. Input
- b. Storage devices
- c. output

b. Which of the following is an input device?

- a. Speaker
- b. mouse ✓
- c. Printer

c. An operating system is an example of?

- a. System software ✓
- b. application software
- c. both of these
- d.

d. Devices that are used to give instructions to a computer are called

a) Input ✓ b) out Put c) Processor

e. Processed data is called

a) Input ✓ b) Memory c) instruction

