

Define primary colours and secondary colours with examples.

Ans - Primary colours are the colours of light by mixing which white light is obtained, these are:-

i) Red

ii) Green

iii) Blue

Secondary colours are the colours of light which are obtained by mixing two primary colours together.

These are:-

i) Yellow

ii) Cyan

iii) Magenta