

Heat

Physics homework

1. Thermal expansion is the tendency of matter to change in shape, area and volume in respect to a change in temperature.

2. The telephone wires will sag in summer due to expansions, while putting up the wires between the pole, they are kept tight so that ~~that~~ they may not sag too much.

3.

