

ASSIGNMENT

SUMMER HOLIDAY HOMEWORK

1. The Indian National Congress was largely a secular party and did not make any religious distinctions among the people.

The Muslim League was a religious party which wanted the creation of the separate state of Pakistan.

While the INC claimed to represent both the Hindus & the Muslims the Muslim League represented only Muslims.

2) Writer of Novel 'Anandamath' is Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay.

3) The Spinning wheel in the Swaraj flag represented Gandhian ideal of self-help.

4) Nationalism spreads when people begin to believe that they are all part of the same nation and when they discover that it binds them together. This sense of collective belonging unites people of different communities, regions or languages by experience or many united struggles. There were also a variety of cultural processes through which Nationalism captured people's imagination. History, fiction, folklore, and songs, popular poems and symbols all played a vital role in the awakening of the spirit of Nationalism. They felt energised and highly patriotic. It was thus essential to spread this folk tradition in order to discover citizen's national identity & restore a sense of pride in their past.
