

HW
23/07

Q: Explain how the ball is a symbol of various things in the poem 'The Ball poem'?

Ans → The ball poem is about a boy who loses his ball and afterwards is seen grieving the loss of his ball. The ball poem has symbolizes symbolism as its outstanding figure of speech. The writer uses the ball as a symbol, where losing the ball symbolise losing the ball symbolise losing his childhood that he had cherished from he lost it unexpectedly. It is about a little boy, who in his young life, for the first time, is learning what it is like to experience grief after the loss of a much-beloved possession which is here his ball.