

HOME ASSIGNMENT-2.

Date _____

Page 04.

Q1. What do you mean by coming together federalism?

Ans → Independent states join together on their own to form a larger unit is known as coming together federalism.

Q2. What do you mean by holding together federalism?

Ans → Holding together federalism is nothing but the division of powers between the states of the country and central govt. of that country.

Q3. Define union list?

Ans → The union list is a list of subjects of national importance. These include national defence, foreign affairs, banking, communications and currency.

Q4. Define Concurrent List?

Ans → The concurrent list comprises of subjects which are of common concern both to the Centre & the state government.

Q5. Define Residuary List?

Ans → Subjects that do not fall in either the union, state or the concurrent list is known as the Residuary list. The parliament has powers to make any law with respect to any matter which is not a part of the Residuary power.