

HW
29/8/21

1. We always need to store liquids in containers. Why?

Ans - Liquids have their molecules separated from each other, thus the molecules of liquid do not stick to each other. Liquids do not have a fixed shape. It flows and is not stationary.