

Institutional Representation : of Democracy

Define the following ~~two~~ terms:

- b.) A general election is a political voting election where generally all or most of members of a given political body are chosen.
- a.) A mid-term election is a type of election where the people can elect their representative and other subnational officers (governor etc) are elected in the middle of the term of the executive.

Fill in the blanks :-

- 1.) Elections are the process by which the citizens of a democracy select or ~~choose~~ choose their representatives.

ans- Election

Multiple-Choice Based question

1) What is Bye-Election

ans- (a) Election held to fill a vacancy caused by the death or any reason

Answer the following

1) Discuss any three requirements for fair elections.

ans - Requirements for fair elections are :-

i.) Elections should be held regularly.

ii.) All citizens should have only one vote and all votes should carry the same value.

iii.) Elections should be conducted in an atmosphere free of fear or violence. There should be no compulsions on the voters to vote for a particular candidate.