1. (a) Nobody accompanied Wanda to school as she didn't have any friends.

(b) Wanda used to wear a faded blue dress that didn't hang right. It was not covered.

(c) The girls would surround Wanda in the schoolyard as she stood watching them play hopscotch.

(d) 'hang right'

2. (a) Wanda came all the way from Bogger's Height and her feet were usually called water-soaked mud. So to hide her muddy shoes she sat there. She had no friends, so usually she sat in the 'corner' sit.

- (b) Whenever Peggy with her friends asked about dresses, Wanda replied that she had 100 dresses, she often described the design and colour of dresses also.
- (c) Wanda lives in Boggs Heights, the roads are muddy, usually poor people live there. Anyone who lives are considered as poor which Wanda too reflected.
- (d) Peggy and Maddie were astonished and now they understood that Wanda did not have 100 dresses in real. She was talking about her dreaming and designs of dresses.
3. Peggy was the most popular girl in the school. She was pretty made fun of Wanda. She really wait for Wanda to have fun of her. She daily asked her how many dresses she has. Peggy's behaviour with Wanda can't be justified in any way. Such behaviour is called as bullying. Peggy did not feel guilty at all but her behaviour made Wanda leave the school. So such behaviour can cause damage of someone's feeling.

Thinking About the Text

1. How is Wanda seen as different by the other girls? How do they treat her?

Ans. Wanda is a Polish girl. She lived in Boggs Heights. She came school with the same faded blue everyday card her feet covered with mud. As she had a funny name all of the classmate surround and tease her.

- Q2. How does Wanda feel about the dress game? Why does she sleep that she has a 100 dresses?

Ans. Wanda felt very embarrassed but she didn't react much. She doesn't talk to anyone and sits in the corner. To avoid the humiliation she said that she has a hundred dresses and sixty pairs of matching shoes. Later she drew all of them on paper for competition.

Q3. Why does Maddie stand by and does not do anything? How is she different from Peggy?

Ans. Peggy was the most popular girl in the class and Maddie was her closest friend. Maddie is poor, Peggy never tears her as she does with Wanda so Maddie was afraid of losing her friendship.

4. What does Mrs. Mason think of Wanda's drawing? What do the children think of them? How do you think?

Ans. Mrs. Mason was very impressed with Wanda's drawing. She considers them beautiful and worthy of winning. The children were also impressed by the drawing skills of Wanda that they all clapped with joy.
