

WORKSHEET- 89

1. (a) what can you say about the weather?

- weather was clear, stars shining, moon was coming behind me and it was night and all ~~there~~ were sleeping.

(b) why was the pilot happy?

- Pilot was happy because he was able to eat breakfast with his family and enjoy the holiday with family.

(c) where was the navigator trying his aeroplane?

- The navigator was trying to Paul's on his plane.

(d) Find out the synonym of 'countryside' from the passage.

- countryside

Q (a) what happened when the navigator turned the aeroplane twelve degrees west towards England?

When the navigator turned the aeroplane 12° west towards England, he saw huge storm clouds which looked like black mountains. It was impossible to see anything as outside was black. His radio and compass were dead.

(b) who helped the narrator in the safe landing now?

I think it was no one but the navigator himself who helped him to reach safely. He saw a black aeroplane and followed it and landed safely. But the woman said no one was there except

(c) what made the woman in the control centre look at the narrator strangely?

Ans: when the navigator called the woman for the other unknown person who helped him, she was amazed because he was only who was in the storm struggling to come

(d) "I landed" and was not sorry to walk away from the Old Dakota". why did the narrator make remark?

Ans. The narrator landed safely. Although he was eager to reach out to his family, yet he walked away from the Old Dakota to control tower to thank the other pilot. He did not regret searching for him despite being late.

3. Give an account of the narrator's experience of flying his aeroplane into storm

Ans. Narrator wanted to have breakfast with his family so he was desperate to go to Paris. On the way with the Old Dakota, it was smooth journey but after he turned low toward England, he saw a storm which twisted the plane. The Radio was dead, compass started turning round and round. Suddenly he saw a black aeroplane in front of him. The narrator followed him obediently. He felt frightened but he was amazed; he could come out and see the runway but the black aeroplane disappeared.