Respected Sir,

Subject - Benefits of using the internet for educational purpose.

Through columns of your august newspaper I would like to draw your obligatory attention towards the luxury of internet and role of this in thriving of education. In the past 5 years the usage of internet has enriched children and also compounded the children. In this pandemic internet has play an incumbent role in education otherwise the coronavirus would have ransacked our education system. But contemporarily internet has acted as a saviour for thousands of students who have have the hunger to learn.

It is providing the knowledge on all topics in every subjects. By its replenting am, after am. phone using play on or IOS it is opening manifold topics.
E-books are greatly helping students who don't have least privilege to buy a book. But because of vulgarity which is being surveyed every reluctant to give provide their child with this appliance and they are abstaining their from using this and keeping it peripheral to them.

But they are parents are under
