1. What does the constitution say with regard to equality?

Ans- Our constitution says that — All Indians are equal before the law and everyone has equal rights and opportunities. People are free to choose any kind of work they wish to do. Govt will not discriminate any citizen on the basis of religion, race, sex, caste or region.

2. Why do you think it is important for all people to be equal?

Ans- It is important for all people to be equal because it can help the growth of the society. It will not create inferiority complex among people. According to law every people are same and have the right to utilise their rights.

3. Sometimes people make prejudiced comments in your presence. We are often not in a position to do anything about this because it is difficult to say something right then and there. Divide the class into groups and each group discuss what they could do in one of the following situations:

a. A friend begins to tease a classmate because he is poor.

Ans- I would advice my friend not to tease. Being rich or poor should not matter to us but to be a good human being would definitely matter. So we should not discriminate people on the basis of rich or poor.

b. You are watching TV with your family and one of them makes a prejudicial comment about a particular religious community.

Ans- I would definitely tell them not to pass comment on a particular religious community because according to our constitution ~~we~~ we all are same. Every body should be treated the same way.

c. children in your class refuse to share their food with a particular person because they think she is dirty.

Ans- I would advice my friends ~~to~~ not to do so because we need to see her qualities and talent not her get up. People may vary from each other in different aspects but we children are all same. We should develop this mentality now onwards because we are the future of our nation.

d. Some one tells you a joke that makes fun of a Community because of their accent.

Ans- I would never laugh at his joke rather I would advice him/her not to pass jokes which will hurt someone's sentiment. We have different languages and every accent is different from each other. We should respect every language.

e. Some boys make remarks about girls not being able to play games as well as them.

Ans- I would advice them not to so because this feeling brings gender inequality. Boys and girls are equal and they should not be judged on the basis of games or other things. @ Now a days girls can do more than boys. They achieve greater heights than the boys. So they should be equally treated and given equal opportunities.
