Revision-2

The Why-Why Girl

A) Read the lines and answer the question

1. "But she very obstinate, " Khiri replied ". Just want give in"

a) Who is Khiri? Who is she talking about?

Ans- Khiri is moyoná's mother. She said these lines to moyna.

b) Why does she call the person obstinate?

Ans- She call the person obstinate because she is very determined. She does not change her idea.

c) What was the narrator opinion about her?

Ans- The narrator opinion was possitive because if we do why-why it increases our knowledge and helps to know things better.

2. "Why not? It's a big hut. How much space does one women need?"

a) Who speaks the above line to whom?

Ans- Moyna said to her mother.

b) Why does she say so?

Ans- Because she wanted to go to the narrator house and ask her all why and gain knowledge.

c) Who is referred to the 'old women'?

Ans- The 'old women' refers to the narrator 'Mahoshweta Devi'.

B) Answer in brief

1. What work did Moyna do for the landlord and why did she do it?

Ans- Moyona takes care of the animals of the landlord and when she asks for food they give their leftover to her.

2. Why did Moyona not want to thank babu?

Ans- She did not want to thank babu because she does thousand of work for babu but the babu didn't thank her and in return she gets leftover food from babu.

3. Do you admire Moyana? Why? Why not? How, according to you, should a person interact with Moyana?

Ans - Yes, I admire Moyana. Her why-why was good because if we do 'why' we can know the thing better and gain knowledge. And if a person interacts with moyana he/she will gain much knowledge.

The Night we won the Buick

1) Mention details in the story which show that the narrator family was quite poor?

Ans - They family get their need's on credit because they did not have enough money to pay the grocer and they were the only family in the town who didn't even own one car.

2) why was it so important for the narrator to possess a car?

Ans - It is important for the narrator to possess a car because they were the only family in the ~~town~~ town who didn't own a car.

3) How did the narrator's joy turn out to be short-lived?

Ans - The narrator's joy turned out to be short-lived because when he knew that the winning ticket belongs to his father's boss Kendrick and his father decided to give the car to his boss.

4) Explain what the narrator means when he says, "I know now we were never richer than we were at the moment when Dad made that telephone call"?

Ans - The narrator's mother always used to say that 'if we have a good character we have the better part of the life'. At that time the narrator realised that her mother was right.

5) Do you think the narrator's father did the right thing or was a fool? Give reason?

Ans- Yes, narrator's father did the right thing because if he would have kept the buick it would have been a cheating for his boss and his children would have learnt the same from him.

6) Do you like the ending of the story? Why / Why not?

Ans- Yes I liked the ending of the story because his father had not done cheating with Kendrick and he taught a lesson to his son that character comes first then wealth.
