

CW
22/9/21

Revision-3

A Hero

1) 'He read aloud an article ..... what do you say to that?'

a) Name the speaker?

Ans - The speaker is the father.

b) What did the speaker narrate to the listener?

Ans - The speaker narrated about the bravery story of a village boy who fought with a tiger and killed it.

c) Why did the speaker look at the listener fixedly?

Ans - The speaker looked at the listener fixedly because the listener (Swami) was a coward and his father wanted to make him brave and fearless by telling such stories.

The School Boy

Date _____
Page _____

1) 'I love to rise in the summer ..... Sweet company'.

a) What does the poet love a lot?

Ans- The poet loves to rise early in the summer morning and enjoy the beauty of nature.

b) Which activities of the morning has the poet mentioned in the first stanza?

Ans- He loves to rise in the morning and see the birds singing on tree, listen to the horn of huntsman and sing with the skylark.

c) Who is the speaker?

Ans- The speaker is the poet himself.

A Hero

1) Why did Swami feel that the story in the newspaper was not true?

Ans - Swami felt the story was not true because according to him tiger was more powerful than the timid boy. He thought that it was impossible for a little boy to kill a huge tiger.

2) Why did Swami not want to do <sup>as</sup> this father said? How did he try to get out of it?

Ans - Swami did not want to do as his father said because he was frightened of darkness and insects biting him. So he tried to get out of this by sleeping near his grandmother.

3) Attempt a character sketch of Swami?

Ans - Swami was a small and simple boy who was afraid of darkness and had a habit of sleeping near his grandmother.

And that was his great weakness. But his father told him different bravery stories to make him fearless. Swami always thought of ghost so he could not sleep alone. But one day his father made him sleep in the office room alone to make him fearless.

The School Boy

Answer the following questions

1) How does the narrator describes the school-master?

Ans- The poet describes the school master as a cruel eye outworn which means cruel and angry teacher who had an eye on the students all the time.

2) Why can't the school boy take delight in his books?

Ans- The ~~See~~ school boy could not take delight in his books because he is attracted towards the nature outside and doesnot want to go to school and get bored.

3) what drives his joy?

Ans - The School boy wants to play outside in the pleasents weather but going to school drives his joy away.