Dear neetu,

Hope my letter will find you and your family in good health. Give my regards to uncle and Auntie. Our exams were hectic and I really needed to relax. This vacation a boon to me. I have decided to join computer class for 7 days to learn about photoshop. And beside that I will be visiting all my relatives who are staying nearby. I think this vacation will be a fun for me.

Hoping to hear from you.

Not only this but he managed ~~to~~ to defend himself before his friends that a pair of tongs were more useful than those toys. This activity of Hamid shows his maturity level.

3) Discuss in detail the acts mischief that William was engaged in and how his activities put others in trouble in the house shifting.

Ans- William was a naughty boy who was famous for his mischief acts while shifting. He promised his family to help them. But instead of that he created a lot of nuisance and headache for his family. At first he was stuck in the van and then he was pulled out of that after wasting so much of time and energy. Then he broke some medicine bottles while carrying it to the home. Then he put wet paint on his pant and made dirty. And finally he climbed the roof and got down the chimney to open the locked door. He was again stuck there for a long time. Like this he instead of helping put his family member and other in trouble.
