

- a Narrator mention the incident here is that in the morning a cat got stuck in a tree that
- b Dad said, "Right just leave it to me"
- c Mum replied that, "For goodness sake don't fall"
- d The meaning of wobbly is unsteady

3.a Name of the poem is, "Dad and cat and tree" and name of poet is Kit Wright.

b Dad landed wallop back on deck

c Mum's replied that "Stop it you will break your neck."

d. landed wallop means fell heavily

1. Boy thinks colour differently because he can see them
2. Green is like rustle of leaves when wind blows through the forest.
3. Red is a bold colour and easily attracts attention. Similarly sound of trumpet blowing is loud and blaring which it is associated with colour red.
4. Thunderstorm is good comparison for purple. Sky usually turns a shade of purple when thunderstorm arrives.
5. The boy feels pleasant stillness when he lies down, which makes him think of white because it has a calming and peaceful effect.

- by
- 1 Dad tried to save the cat by using ladder for first time
 - 2 Plan B was to sting himself upon a branch and reach the cat.
 - 3 Plan C was to climb the garden wall and jump on to the crook of tree trunk where the cat was stuck.
 4. Mum repeatedly tried to warn dad of possible dangers but dad didn't pay any heed to it.