

INFINITIVES

HW
18

1-a. My parents clean the kitchen every day.

clean - finite verb e

b. Amina is very scared of dogs.

Scared - finite verbs dogs - non-finite verbs.

c. She wants to find a solution.

wants - finite verb find - non finite verb

d. I urge you to take better care of your pets.

care - finite verb to take - non-finite verb

e. My cousin wants to be a doctor in the future.

wants finite verb to be - non-finite verb

f. Did you think it would be easy to pass ~~in~~ this course?

think - finite verb to pass - non-finite verb

g. Rohit has been coughing a lot recently. Is he allergic to som

-hing? - has been coughing - finite to something - non-finite

8-a- Be honest is commendable.

A- Be honest is commendable.

b- Growni said you wanted talk to me?

A- Growni said, 'you wanted to talk to me.'

c- Where did you learn draw so beautifully?

A- Where did you learn to draw so beautifully?

d- She dared watch the movie without calling me!

A- She dared to watch the movie without calling me!

e- Anand let his dogs to play in the park this afternoon.

A- Anand let his dogs to play in the park this afternoon.

f- Sharon has always wanted grow her own vegetables.

A- Sharon has always wanted to grow her own vegetables.

g- I would rather to rent an apartment than an entire house.

A- I would rather to rent an apartment than an entire house.

h- He said, 'Hey Abhinami, will you be able to drop me at the railway station.