

Q.1: What is a globe?

Ans: A globe is a three-dimensional model of Earth in miniature.

Q.2: What do two points one on top and another at bottom denote on a globe?

Ans: The two points ~~are~~ on top and bottom denote the North Pole and South Pole respectively.

Q.3: What do we understand by the term 'Axis of the Earth'?

Ans: The axis of the imaginary line which the Earth moves around it.

Q.4: Which latitude divides the Earth into two

Latitudes?

Ans: The latitude that divides is known as equator.

Q.5: Define latitudes.

Ans: The latitudes are ~~are~~ the imaginary lines that run from east to west they also divide the earth into two parts Northern Hemisphere and Southern Hemisphere. They are also known as parallels.

Q.6: Name some important latitudes.

Ans: The name of some important lines of latitude are =

- Tropic of Cancer

- Tropic of Capricorn
- Arctic circle
- Antarctic circle
- Equator