

1 You encountered a beggar at the market place. Now write your experiences in a diary.

Dear Diary,

Saturday, 24.7.21

Today my day was almost good. I really enjoyed a lot with my friends. But on the way of coming to home I saw some children were begging on the crossroad.

It was really a very bad and shame scene. As a country like India, the people are said to be another god but they are beggins. This really makes us feel shame.
