

1 Guillotine - an instrument with a large, heavy blade sliding down between two wooden posts, which was used in France to cut off the heads of criminals.

2 tumbrils - open carts used to carry prisoners to the guillotine during the French Revolution.

3 furrow - a long, narrow mark made in the earth by a plough.

- 4 impossible - expressionless;
not feeling or showing
any emotion.
- 5 lingering - remaining;
slow to end.
- 6 forfeit - Penalty; something
one has to give up as result of a wrong
action.
- 7 fidgeting - hesitating
- 8 seamstress - a woman who sews, often for a living.

9 faint of heart - not brave
or confident .

10 sublime - extremely good or beautiful .