

- Collect the photographs of some courageous people of India and make an album.
- Write a few words describing the incident, when you had spoken truth fearlessly, and presented it before your friends.

Date 21st June

Description of the event

One day I had spoken the truth fearlessly before my parents that our TV had broken by me by throwing a bottle accidentally.