

Homework oral question

Choose the correct answer.

1) When the fulcrum is in between the load and the effort it is a (first-class/second-class/third-class) lever.

2) A pulley/screw/lever is a small wheel with a groove around its outer edge.

3) A pulley does not reduce the effort. It changes the direction/magnitude of applied force.