

Q. / Ans

Q. What are the things wind does in first stanza?

The things wind does in first stanza is that it break the shutters of the windows, scattered the papers, throw down the books on the shelf, torn the pages and brought the rain again.

Q What does the poet say the wind gets windows?

The poet said that the wind god winnows, houses, doors, rafters, wood, bodies, lives, hearts.

Q What should we do to make friends with the wind?

The things we should do to make friends with the wind is to make strong houses, joint the doors firmly, bearticle to firm the body, Make the heart steadfast.

Q What do the last four lines of poem mean to you?

The last four lines of poem mean to me that If we are weaker we will perish in challenges and If we are stronger we will thrive.

Q How does the poet speaks to the winds - in anger or humour? You must have seen to wind "crumbling lives". What is your response to this? Is it like the poet is?

The poet speaks to the winds in anger. The crumbling lives are affected by the wind as it create and destroy but it also brings cool breeze. It also creates human with stronger will power.