Q How does the guru manage to save his disciple's life?

Guru has the magical powers to see the future and present. So when he saw that his disciple wants his help. By use of magical powers he has arrived at the king's palace from where the disciple is taken to the place he is going to be executed. So he had made a fake story that those who will die first will become the king of the kingdom in next to save his disciple. And the (life) king does not want to lose his kingdom. So first the king died and then his minister. So in this way the guru and his minister disciple became the king and minister of the king respectively and by this his disciple was saved by the Guru.
