③ Answer the following question in about 100-150 words.

Q) Pen down the character sketch of Maddie.

→ Maddie is an emotional, emphatic and evasive girl in the story, 'The Hundred Dresses'. She is the inseparable friend of Peggy and supports her but at the same time feels sorry for Wanda when Peggy teases Wanda. She knows her limitations and reality. She broods deeply before taking any decision. She is weak and reluctant in the beginning.

as she could not speak up against Peggy. Readers could see her constant efforts to make up with Wanda. She amazes at Wanda's drawing skills and praises them heartily. Her visit to Wanda's house and writing letter to her show her earnest behaviour. She is thoughtful and at last emerges as a strong person who takes resolution to speak up against wrong. At last she overcomes her weakness and decides to stand for righteousness.
