

WORKSHEET-95

① (a) who accompanied wanda to school?

Ans- Nobody accompanied Wanda to school as she did not have any friends.

(b) Describe the dress worn by Wanda.

Ans- Wanda used to wear a faded blue dress that didn't hang right. It was not ironed also.

(c) what would the girls do while playing hopscotch?

Ans- The girls would surround Wanda in the school yard as she stood watching them play hopscotch.

(d) which phrase in the above lines means the same as 'fit properly'?

Ans- 'hang right'

② (a) why would wanda sit on the back seat in the class?

Ans- Wanda come all the way from Boggins Heights and her feet were usually caked with dry mud. So to hide her muddy feet she sat there. She had no friends, so usually she sat in the cornered seat quietly.

(b) What does Wanda feel her classmate about her hundred dresses?

Ans - Whenever Peggy with her friends asked about dresses, Wanda replied that she had hundred dresses and all were lined up. She often described the stuff, designs and colours of the dresses also.

(c) Where does Wanda live? What kind of a place do you think it is?

Ans - Wanda lives in Boggy's Heights. The place is known for poor dwellings. The roads are muddy, usually poor people live there. Anyone belonging to that place is considered poor and Wanda also reflects the same idea about the place.

Q) How did Peggy and Maddie react when they saw Wanda's hundred dresses in the classrooms?

Ans Peggy and Maddie were astonished and now they understood that Wanda didn't have hundred dresses in real. She was talking about the drawings and designs of dresses. They recalled the patterns described earlier by Wanda from the drawings.

Q) How Peggy make fun of Wanda? Do you justify her action? Support your answer giving reasons.

Ans Peggy was the most popular girl in the school. She was pretty she often made fun of Wanda with her best friend Maddie.

Peggy's behaviour with Wanda can't be justified in any way. Such behaviour is counted as bullying. Teasing and bullying others for being poor or different in some way is quite reprehensible as it is insensitive to the victim's feelings. Her behaviour made Wanda unhappy. Peggy did not feel guilty at all, but her behaviour made Wanda leave the school. So such behaviour can cause incalculable damage to a person's feelings.