1. How did the invisible man first become visible?

Ans → The invisible man Griffin first became visible after he slipped into a big London store for keeping warm and overslept there while wearing some clothes taken from the store. The clothes made him visible to the shop assistants when the shops opened in the morning. To escape from them, he had to shed all his clothes to become invisible again.

2. Why was he wandering the streets?

Ans → Griffin was a lawless person. His landlord disliked him and tried to get rid of him. In revenge, he set fire to the house. He had to remove his clothes to get away without being seen. This was why he had become a homeless wanderer - without clothes and money.

3. Why does Mrs Hall find the scientist eccentric?

Ans → Mrs Hall found the scientist eccentric because of his strange appearance and also, when she tried to be friendly with him, he rebuffed (rejected) her by saying that he had come there for solitude and did not wish to be disturbed in his work.
