

The Kingdom of Fools

1) What are the two things the guru and his disciple found strange in the kingdom of fools?

The two things that the guru and disciple found strange in the kingdom of fools were:-

Days were changed to night and night were changed to days. Everyone would awake at night, carry out their work and go to bed as soon as sun arises.

The cost to purchase anything from the market was same, only one duddu whether it is a measure of rice or dozen of bananas.

2) Why does the disciple decide to stay in the kingdom of fools? Is it a good idea?

The disciple was a greedy and foodholic person. He was very much delighted that everything cost a single duddu and all he wanted such as food was very much cheap. So he decided to stay in the kingdom of fools.

3) Name all the people who are tried in king's court. Give reason for their trial.

According to the Guru staying there was not a good idea as the kingdom was of fools, so he felt that they would not last long and also they couldnot know what they would do to them next.

3) Name all the people who are tried in kings court. Give reason for their trial.

The people who were tried in King's court were the rich merchant, the bricklayer, the dancing girl, the goldsmith and the rich merchant for the second time.

The merchant was tried because the walls of his house were weak, so when the thief came to his ^{house} for robbery it fell on the thief and killed him.

The bricklayer was tried because he built the wall of the merchant which was weak and on collapsing it killed the poor thief.

The dancing girl was tried because her jingling anklets distracted the bricklayer as she was walking up and down the road when the bricklayer was building the walls.

The goldsmith was tried because he was busy in making the merchant's father's order for which he didn't complete the dancing girl's order on time and so she had to go to the goldsmith a dozen times.

The rich merchant was tried for the second time because his father has given a great project or order to the goldsmith for which to complete his order first he was delaying the dancing girl's project. But as the ~~rich~~ dead rich merchant's father was dead, the merchant had to be executed in his father's place.
