

Hots :

Q. Bubbles appear when you open a bottle of soda but not when you open a bottle of mineral water. Why?

Ans. This only happens with aerated drinks like soda because a gas called carbon dioxide is dissolved in the bottle's water or any drink under great pressure. But mineral water is pure water. That's why when we open a bottle of soda, bubbles escape as gas.