

HW Most of the people of Greenland live in south-western part because it is the warmest part of the country. This is the reason why most of the people live in south-western part than North part of Greenland.