Dear Swati,

How have you been? I hope my letter finds you in best of health and spirits. It has been a long while we haven't met due to Corona Pandemic. We are safe here. In this letter, I am writing my experience about my new book.

As you know I like reading books as I get to know many things about the topics. This time, I have chosen a book related to <sup>english</sup> grammar and creative writing. It was N.K. Aggarwala Grammar & Composition book <sup>of</sup> the english <sup>class-</sup> I liked that book. I got to know some of the basic fundamental Concepts of English Grammar and I also practised many of them in my rough notebook. I have also written <sup>many</sup> ~~9999~~ articles, stories, letters etc. as a practice for composition part. When I went <sup>through</sup> ~~to~~ the topics thoroughly and in a detailed manner, I got to know that English grammar is not hard at all, It's child's play, we have to ~~be~~ only understand the concepts and utilize in a practical manner. Reading and learning from this book was a new and also nice experience. I will also suggest you that you should read this book to acquire knowledge on ~~the~~ English Grammar & Composition related topics & I believe it would be a good learning journey for you.

I think you would definitely accept my recommendation.
Waiting for your reply,
Regards to uncle and aunty,
Yours lovingly,
Preeti.
