(Protesting the killing of whales)

Killing of whale - is a crime

Whale - One of the aquatic creatures is crying for its life and in this modern era, the whale is feeling unsafe in its habitat which is the sea or ocean. The cruel ~~sea~~ humans are killing the whales to fulfill his barely requirement such as in making lipsticks for painted faces and making shoe polish for shoes. We, humans don't have a right to kill whales for this very minor required things. For this mistakes, whales are becoming endangered day-by-day. So, the whale is feeling for itself and its members who are died. If the humans will continue killing these innocent animals, the whales would become extinct and the balance of ecosystem would be disturbed and this would lead to the extinction of other certain species. Thus, we should join organisations that help us to save whales and donate. The ship sailors should control and reduce the ship speeds in especially coastal water to reduce whale mortality.

Thus, we have a right to live and so they have, so, we shouldn't destroy these creature lives and should let them live peacefully,
