The new girl in the school had a prosthetic hand (left). As, it was very weird to have that type of strange hand. She felt ~~a~~ discriminative in the class. So, she felt shy, I didn't play with any one in the school. Everyone stared at the new girl for her prosthetic hand and attitude of being shy. She felt unhappy when anyone didn't play, talk, or any ~~an~~ interaction with her. Thus, she remained upset in the school hours. ~~She~~ She felt lonely standing ~~in~~ in a corner seeing the students playing, but she didn't.
