Honesty Pays in the long run

Manesh was a hard working and honest person. He was a sincere bank clerk. He did his work on time. All other bank clerks were jealous of him. Thus, hated him and didn't let him to do his work peacefully. So, ^{he} got no recognition. Many bank clerks were giving untruthful complains about him to the Chief Manager. That is why he was getting a low salary and remained under debt. After that also, he ~~to~~ had ^{kept} patience in his mind and kept faith on the god. "Oh! God, help me.. My life is worsening day-by-day." He prayed then, ^{he} smiled and said, "I know you ~~do~~ are ~~at~~ the supreme power. I keep believe you the most in my life." So saying, he went ~~went~~ the bank to work. A rich businessman was in search of a truth-ful person who would work as a bank clerk in his bank and he saw Mahesh passing-by going to the bank and others too. When ^{except} all the ~~less~~ bank clerks, Mahesh returned from the bank, he ~~that~~ came in the form of a small business owner and asked why Mahesh, ^{why} he ~~is~~ ^{was} alone standing ^{near} ~~at~~ the door of the cabinet. He said "Am" Our manager told me to stand here to guard the files in the cabinet for two hours." The businessman said, "Oh, okay.

Actually, I am a Private Company owner and I want few documents in the cabin as for Partnership ~~the~~ deals."
When Mahesh denied him to enter the cabin politely until his manager arrives. Businessman gave him ~~an~~ bribe, Mahesh smiled and refused ~~so~~ saying, "My Parents haven't taught this to me. ~~The~~ Honesty is the best policy, Sir."
The businessman understood that Mahesh ~~is~~ was the perfect person for whom he was looking for.
He revealed his identity as he got impressed for his honesty. He asked him to join his firm at double the salary. The manager arrived and let him join at their bank. Mahesh became happy and thanked god for helping him.
